Burton esq., laying out the resolutions made relating to the School House belonging to Miss Cookson's School and now occupied by Miss S Brown:

1). The Education Committee do not undertake to pay the rent for the teachers' houses, but that in each case where the use of the school house forms part of the teachers' salary, the Education Committee increase the salary by such amount.

2). Miss S Brown, headmistress, shall have her salary increased by £14 p.a. from 1 Apr 1903.

3). That the sum due to Miss Brown be paid with the salary of the month of March 1904.

4). The rates, withheld paid by the Education Authority be deducted from the amount of rents to be paid with the salaries for March 1904.
